Meetings

FAQs

Q: How long does each hearing last?

A: No longer than 20 minutes

Q: How do I make a comment in the Plan Commission Meeting?

A: Fill out a "Request to Speak" Form and present it to the Recording Secretary. The form can be found on the table at the Council Chambers entrance.

Q: What is the proper way to speak in front of the Plan Commission?

A: When the President calls your name, come forward to the podium, speak into the microphone, and clearly state your name and address.

Closing of the Public Hearing

The President of the Commission may increase the length of the hearing if it is requested by the applicant or agent representing the applicant. If the President decides that the Commission has adequately heard from all parties, then he/she closes the public hearing. At this point all comments, questions, and concerns by the audience and applicant should have already been addressed. A motion is made, and seconded, by the Commission for a continuance, dismissal, or vote on final recommendations or decisions in accordance to Article VI of the Rules of Procedure for the Noblesville Plan Commission. A record of the proceedings and vote will be kept by the Recording Secretary and filed in the Planning Department Office at 16 South 10th Street, Suite 150, Noblesville, Indiana 46060.
