

Solicitor Process Information Sheet

In accordance with Noblesville City Ordinance # 15-05-12, persons or companies wishing to solicit goods/services door-to-door within city limits must first receive a solicitor permit.

Please read the exemptions from registration listed below to find out if your organization qualifies. If your organization does not meet the exemptions, then you must apply for a permit with the City of Noblesville in order to lawfully solicit goods or services.

The following are exempt from registration:

- Persons specifically invited to a residence by a competent individual prior to the time of the person's arrival at the residence.
- Persons whose license, permit, certificate, or registration with the State of Indiana permits them to engage in door-to-door solicitation to offer goods or services to an occupant of the residence.
- Persons delivering goods to a residence pursuant to a previously made order or persons providing services at a residence pursuant to a previously made request by a competent individual.
- Persons advocating or disseminating information for, against, or in conjunction with any religious belief or political position regardless of whether goods, services, or any other consideration is offered or given, with or without any form of commitment, contribution, donation, pledge, or purchase.
- Persons representing a charitable organization. The charitable exemption shall also apply to students soliciting contributions to finance extracurricular social, athletic, artistic, scientific, or cultural programs provided that the solicitation has been approved in writing by the school administration and that such student solicitors carry current student picture identification from the educational institution for which they are soliciting.
- A United States military veteran that has been granted a vending/peddling license by the Hamilton County Auditor's Office.
